CONSOLIDATION REPORT OF A VARIOUS ACADEMIC AND NON-ACCORDAMIC COMMITTEES FUNCTIONING DURING 2022-23

The consolidation report for CSTS Government Degree College for the academic year 2022-23 provides a comprehensive overview of the various academic and non-academic committees' contributions. Academic Committees focused on curriculum enhancement, faculty development, and student performance evaluations.

They successfully updated course content to align with current industry standards and integrated innovative teaching methodologies. Regular workshops and training sessions were organized for faculty, enhancing teaching effectiveness and research capabilities. Student feedback mechanisms were strengthened, leading to improved academic support and tailored interventions to address learning needs.

Non-Academic Committees were instrumental in managing campus events, student support services, and infrastructural development. They orchestrated numerous extracurricular activities, which enriched campus life and provided students with holistic growth opportunities. Committees responsible for infrastructure and facilities worked on upgrading campus amenities and ensuring a conducive learning environment.

The coordinated efforts of these committees resulted in improved student satisfaction, enhanced academic performance, and a more vibrant campus atmosphere. The report highlights the effectiveness of their collective work, demonstrating a commitment to fostering both academic excellence and overall student well-being, thus advancing the college's mission and objectives.
