Analysis

The feedback indicates a positive perception of the college but highlights areas for improvement. By implementing these actions, we aim to elevate the overall experience for students and parents, ensuring continued satisfaction and growth. The majority of parents rated the college's ambience and facilities as better. However, some parents found it to be average, indicating some room for improvement. Most parents feel the college environment supports their children's overall development well, with only a few parents rating it as average. All parents rated the hostel facilities as either "Good" or "Very Good," indicating overall satisfaction. While most parents are satisfied with the career orientation provided, there is a slight need to enhance these efforts as some parents rated it as average. Parents are evenly split between "Very Good" and "Good," showing a generally positive but improvable environment for students to discuss problems. While most parents find the authorities approachable, there is a need to improve as only few parents rated it as excellent. Satisfaction with communication is positive but balanced, with equal ratings of "Very Good" and "Good."
