Feedback Analysis Report

The feedback gathered from employers across diverse industries has provided valuable insights into the effectiveness of our programs in preparing students for the workforce. This report consolidates key findings, detailing the overwhelmingly positive responses regarding the course content's relevance to industry requirements and the comprehensive coverage of the curriculum. Employers also expressed mostly positive views on the program's relevance to real-life situations and its overall learning values. However, opinions were mixed regarding students' efforts and their commitment to mastering these values. Some employers suggested the inclusion of more advanced topics in the curriculum to better prepare students for industry challenges. Additionally, the feedback highlighted strong support for the practical problem-solving relevance (CSP) component of the program, with positive endorsements from all employers regarding the internship's effectiveness in facilitating job placements post-graduation.
