Analysis Report :

Based on teacher feedback, our program has been deemed effective in preparing students for the industry, with majority agreements on course and curriculum relevance, practical application preparation, and flexibility in course structure. The Choice Based Credit System and assessment methods were also viewed positively. To address areas for improvement, we have taken actions to review and refine the curriculum, introduce new syllabi, emphasize practical skills, introduce skill-based courses, review assessment methods, and strengthen industry partnerships. These steps demonstrate our commitment to continuous improvement, ensuring our students are well-prepared for industry success.
