5	How do you rate the learning experience in terms of teaching and learning	2	2	2	4	0
6	Overall Rating of the College	2	2	3	3	0

Analysis Report:

The majority of old students find the course content and coverage to be either excellent or very good. However, there is a notable portion who rated it as average, indicating potential areas for improvement. It suggests a balanced view with a significant number rating the subject as either excellent or very good in terms of its relevance for higher studies. However, there is a need to address the concerns of those who rated it average. It indicates a mixed response regarding the syllabus's ability to enhance employability skills, with a notable number finding it average. This suggests a gap in aligning curriculum with industry expectations. A majority of students find the contents relevant to industrial requirements, indicating a positive alignment. However, feedback from those who rated it average should be investigated further. The overall rating of the college is balanced, with equal numbers rating it good or average. This reflects a mixed perception among students regarding their overall experience.
